Constantinople, July 23.

THE Port having been informed, that a Misunderstanding had happened at Asakow; that some Cossack Merchants, Subjects of the Empress of Russia, had been taken up by the Governor as Spies on that Account, and that one or two of them had been executed by the Populace, they sent directly the late Coul Cheaia or Lieutenant General of the Janissaries, at the Head of Part of that Corps, to make immediate Execution on those who had committed that rash Action. On the 18th Instant, the Vizir Cheaia, a Man who was not equal to that Post, was deposed, and the Testerdar was placed in that Office; the Cheaia being reduced to that of Terzana Emini, or Inspector of the Arsenal. A few Days ago we had two great Fires, the one near the Seven Towers, which consumed a District inhabited by the Butchers and Tanners; the other at Scutary, in which about 200 Houses were burnt. These Accidents are supposed to have happened by a Sett of Incendiaries, who designedly prepare Combustibles, and throw them into Houses, two large Balls of that Composition having been thrown into a French Merchant's Window, one of which was found burning. Ezade Efendi, who was Mufty before he who was last deposed, is recalled from his Banishment at Synope, and is soon expected here.

Petersbourg, Aug. 21. The College of Commerce has lately published a Proclamation, setting forth, that having received certain Information that the Distemper amongst the Horned Cattle was broke out again at Stockholm, they therefore forbid, in the Name of her Imperial Majesty, under very severe Penalties, the bringing from thence into Russia, of all Provisions of that Kind, whether fresh, dried, or salted.

On the 20th was celebrated the Anniversary of the Pope's Coronation, when the Alms, usually distributed upon this Occasion, was given to the Poor; and at Night there was fine Illuminations throughout the City. Yesterday they began to say Masses for the Repose of the Soul of the late King of Portugal, in the Church of that Nation; on which Occasion they also distributed Alms amongst the poor People.

Warsaw, Aug. 25. This Morning at Nine o'Clock the King went in State to the Castle, and opened the Senatus Consilium with the usual Formalities.
